

ENHANCE YOUR STUDENTS' OPPORTUNITIES...

► Partner with ACE and AP-TIP

EXPANDING ACCESS AND SUCCESS IN ADVANCED PLACEMENT COURSES CAN CHANGE YOUR STUDENTS' LIVES

- AP-TIP (Advanced Placement Teacher Investment Program) at the University of Notre Dame works with teachers who teach AP math, science, or English (MSE) courses in Catholic high schools of which at least one member of the team is an ACE graduate.
- Teachers participate in high-quality professional growth opportunities.
- Teachers build connections to a broader community of Advanced Placement teachers.
- Teachers and schools leverage resources and support that engage all students.
- Applications are accepted by individual teachers or teacher groups at a school. Groups will be limited to 3 teachers per school.

FULLY FUNDED PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Application opens: January 11, 2021
- Interviews begin: February 1, 2021
- Notifications conclude: March 31, 2021

TEACHER COMMITMENTS

- ▶ Participate in a two-year cohort and commit to remaining at your school for two years.
- ▶ Attend AP-TIP professional development events during all years as cohort members:
 - AP Summer Institute: July 2021 & 2022
 - Mock Exam Reading: March 2022 & 2023
 - Celebratory Meeting: May/June 2022 & 2023
- ▶ Participate in a monthly professional learning community (PLC) supervised by AP-TIP content directors. Some PLC monthly activities will merge with other AP-TIP professional development events to build an AP MSE support network nationally.
 - PLC Virtual Retreat and Kick-Off: August 2021

SCHOOL COMMITMENTS
